Yankee 'Kings' and 'Queens' Hold Revel at Deauville

DEAUVILLE, FRANCE, Aug. 17 (By U. P.)—American soap and steel kings, theatrical queens and the potentates of the Orient are together in Deauville this week for one mad ecstasy of spending and playing.

The West and the East have met, despite Kipling, and for the limited period every one is a millionaire. The Dolly Sisters, Broadway favorites, lead the list of stage stars here for the celebrations which will reach their heights this week, but will not end until August 28.

The New York social world is represented by Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Harjes and Mr. and Mrs. E. Berry Wall. From the Orient comes Agha Khan and the Maharajah of Puthala,

2 Amateur Sleuths Round Up Trio as Postoffice Robbers

A postal clerk and a letter carrier, playing amateur detectives during their spare time, last night rounded up and arrested the third of a trio of youths, who, it is said, stole eighteen parcel post packages from Times Square Post-office, 38th Street and 7th Avenue, on July 23.

Lester Bricks, clerk, and Lazarus Abramson, postman, who saw the youths flee after the robbery, arrested Philip Flanzbaum of 348 West 41st St., two weeks ago. He is held in $2,000 bail. On August 8 Abramson captured Sam Alterg of 1665 Bathgate Ave., who pleaded guilty and was held in $3,000 bail.

Attending the Palace Theater last night Abramson and Bricks saw Stephen Pilat of 501 East 173d St., in an orchestra box and seized him.

DEATHBED VOW SENDS MRS. WILSON TO GENEVA

LONDON, Aug. 17 (By U. P.)—Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, who has been visiting in Scotland, will leave soon for the September session of the League of Nations Assembly.

It is even reported that Mrs. Wilson's annual pilgrimages to Geneva are in fulfillment of a promise she made the late death bed.

$1,000,000 Gambling

It is estimated that $1,000,000 is gambled away nightly. Of this sum, 5 per cent. goes to the Casino. Hotels and restaurants expect to take $10,000,000 from visiting foreigners alone during the two-week period.

On Deauville Beach the women have abandoned the custom of parading in elaborate bathing costumes and now use only the most abbreviated one-piece suits. Bars have been established out on the sands and close by the sea.

OUTING FOR SCOUTS

Five Hundred east side Boy Scouts will be taken to Coney Island for an outing tomorrow by the East Side Post of the American Legion. They will leave in buses from the post headquarters, 164 East 7th St., at 8:45 a. m. Abe Rosenberg will have charge of the boys as grand marshal.

Flyer to Wed in Plane 4,000 Feet Over Broadway

Climaxing years spent in the study of aeronautics and their practical application to modern life, Dr. Harry C. McKown, a professor at the University of Pittsburgh, and Miss Ruth I. Hord, teacher at the Phillips High School, Birmingham, Ala., will be married today 4,000 feet above Broadway.

Aviator's togs will displace formal dress in the wedding above the clouds. The Rev. Leslie J. Barnett of the Morningside Presbyterian Church has consented to act as sky pilot, with a third man in charge of the plane. The party will take off from the Curtiss aeroplane field at Garden City at 2:30 o'clock.

Dr. McKown was a lieutenant in aviation during the war and has seen considerable flying service.

War Strategy Wins Blushing Bride for Ex-Marine

WEBSTER, MASS., Aug. 17 (By U. P.)—Tell this to the marines.

Albert Saserville was discharged from the Marine Corps and came home to be married. He found his fiancee, Belinda Larochelle, engaged to another.

She asked for time to consider. Saserville tried the war strategy of an ultimatum.

"Choose between us," he said, "now."

That night Belinda slipped over the piazza roof into Saserville's arms while the other man waited. They are on their honeymoon today.

Gaines Defended By Wife in Trial For Love Killing

SEATTLE, WASH., Aug. 17 (By U. P.)—Mrs. Wallace C. Gaines has come to her husband's defense, denying under cross-examination that she had suspected him of being infatuated with his own daughter.

Gaines is on trial as the 22-year-old girl's slayer following an unnatural love affair.

Sylvia Gaines was born of a previous marriage and had not seen her father for sixteen years.

Questioned regarding the time her husband and Sylvia spent a night together in a hotel, Mrs. Gaines said she saw nothing unusual in this.

"Sylvia and I had agreed that which ever one of us happened to be with Mr. Gaines when he was intoxicated would take care of him," the witness said. "I did not object to their staying at a hotel because I knew my husband had been drinking."

Young Thaw Fined, Hurt in Auto Crash

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 17.—Russell Thaw, 17, son of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, was recovering in his home here today from injuries received late last night when wet pavements caused his automobile to crash into another car at Missouri and Pacific Avenues. Thaw suffered a lacerated elbow and injury to his right thumb.

Earlier in the evening Thaw, with a girl, was fined $5 for parking at the side of the boulevard without proper lights. Neither had enough money to pay the fine, and Thaw was given permission to go to his mother to get it.

FIGHTS RESTRICTIONS

made no mistake in making the arrests."

Nannie L. Murphy, Ottuma, Ia., writes: "I do not think Mrs. Hall had anything to do with the crime."

William Kearon of 980 East 94th St., Brooklyn, writes: "Barbara Tough can reveal more."

The first correct solution which comes to The GRAPHIC will win a cash prize of $500. Other solutions which come in will be awarded prizes ranging downward to $250, $100, $50 and $10 until the $1,000 is exhausted. Every letter that comes in will be stamped according to the date and the hour that I have received it.

Write your solution in not more than 500 words. The solution will be based not only on my theory but on the findings of the court when those who are about to be arrested or who have already been taken into custody are tried.

Read Theories

After you have sent in your solution, which will be properly marked according to the hour and date it was received, read the various theories advanced by those investigating the case, as reported in The GRAPHIC. As the case shapes up, you are at liberty to write your opinion as to what theory, as advanced by the authorities, is correct. This must be done before October 2. This will have no bearing on the solution you have previously sent in. Follow the Hall-Mills mystery development every day in The GRAPHIC.

Address your letters to: SHYLOCK HOMES, THE GRAPHIC, 25 City Hall Place, Manhattan.

Kills Girl, 13, Buries Body in Potato Bin

GREENVILLE, TENN., Aug. 17 (By U. P.)—Refusing to give a motive, Mrs. Bob Tipton, wife of a farmer, has admitted that she killed 13-year-old Mary Winkle and concealed her body in a potato bin. She and her husband have been arrested.

The girl, whose mother is dead, had been sent by her father to live with the Tiptons.
